Shortage Of Men Keeps Many Boys Out Of Scouting

"The crying need of Scouting locally is for men to be scoutmasters to the boys," said R. D. Crow, local executive, Friday. "The other day one of our scoutmasters, walking in North Memphis, saw three boys of Scout ages playing in the streets. North Memphis, saw three boys of Scout age playing in the streets. Asking them whether they were not Scouts, they replied that one of them had been, but that the troup had become disorganized when the pastor of their church, who was also their scoutmaster, left the city. Another said that he was not a Scout, but that he had been studying the manual, hoping hat some day a troup would be organized in his neighborhood. The third said he would join if a troup could be organized.

ANSWERS CRITICS OF GOVERNMENT

Answering critics of the govern-ment, Congressman Hubert Fisher addressing Thursday's luncheon meeting of the Retail Credit Men's association, insisted that the United States had performed its function in ministering to the needs of humanity fully and efficiently since the war. He supported his contentions by a number of specific instances where the government had promptly ren-dered aid to other countries where needed, and that our record since the war as a nation did not deserve the

WITH SAGE TEA

If Mixed With Sulphur It Darkens So Naturally Nobody Can Tell.

The old-time mixture of Sage Tea and Sulphur for darkening gray, streaked and faded hair is grand-mother's recipe, and folks are again using it to keep their hair a good, even color, which is quite sensible, as we are living in an age when a youthful appearance is of the greatest advantage. Nowadays, though, we don't have the troublesome task of gathering the sage and the mussy mixing at home. All drug stores sell the ready-to-use product, improved by the addition of other ingredients, called "Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound." It is very popular because nobody can discover it has been applied. Simply moisten your comb or a soft brush with it and draw this through your hair, taking one small strand at a time: by morning the gray hair disappears, but what delights the ladies with Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound, is that, besides beautifully darkening the hair after a few applications, it also produces that soft lustre and appearance of abundance which is so attractive. so attractive.
